DISCUSSION GUIDE

As you watch NIGHT AT THE MUSEUM: SECRET OF THE TOMB, share these interesting facts about the characters, locations, objects and animals with your children.

SACAJAWEA: Native American woman born in the late 1700's. She was a translator and peacemaker—and the only woman!—on the Lewis and Clark expedition in 1804. Her infant baby, nicknamed “Pompy,” traveled with her!

ATTILA THE HUN: King of the Huns from 434 to 453, one of the greatest barbarian rulers, attacked the Roman Empire.

SCORPIOUS: One of the brightest constellations in the sky, shaped like a scorpion. The name is Latin for scorpion, which is literally translated as the creature with the burning sting.

NEANDERTHALS: Our closest extinct human relative, Neanderthals lived in Europe and southwestern to central Asia between 200,000 and 28,000 years ago.

SIR LANCELOT: A famous Knight of the Round Table in the legend of King Arthur. Lancelot was introduced by writer Chrétien de Troyes in the 12th century. Great fighter, very chivalrous, and the boyfriend of Queen Guinevere.

XIANGLIU: A dangerous nine-headed snake monster that is part of Chinese mythology.

DISCUSSION GUIDE

TRICERATOPS: A type of dinosaur whose skull was one third the length of its entire body. It had two huge horns and one tiny horn on its face. Triceratops lived 66 million years ago—one of the last dinosaurs!

POMPEII: A resort town in the Roman Empire, buried in 79 A.D. by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius. The city was rediscovered in 1748 and had been frozen in time.

GARUDA: A mythical bird-like creature of Buddhism who symbolizes freedom from hopes and fears. The exact size of a Garuda is uncertain, but its wings are said to have a span of many miles.

EASTER ISLAND HEADS: On Easter Island in Chile, stone figures that average 13 feet tall and 14 tons were carved between the 10th and 16th centuries. About 900 were made and people aren't entirely sure why!

CAVEMAN PLATE

Total Time: 15 mins Serves 2

Meet Laaa, a neanderthal from NIGHT AT THE MUSEUM: SECRET OF THE TOMB who bears a striking resemblance to Larry. As a hunter-gatherer, Laaa's diet consists of mostly plant-based foods such as fruits, vegetables, nuts, seeds, legumes, and meats. Make yourself a caveman plate and eat like Laaa!

What to Gather

- 1 pint blueberries
- 1 handful of almonds
- 1 can garbanzo beans
- 3 slices turkey
- 3 slices salami
- 1 bunch grapes

How to Put it Together

1. Arrange all slices of meat onto a plate.
2. Drain can of garbanzo beans and pour them onto the plate, next to the meat slices.
3. Arrange blueberries and grapes together on the plate next to the beans.
4. Add a handful of almonds to your plate.
5. Grab a friend and snack away! This plate was meant for grazing!

SWEET CORN PUDDING

Total Time: 45 mins Serves 6

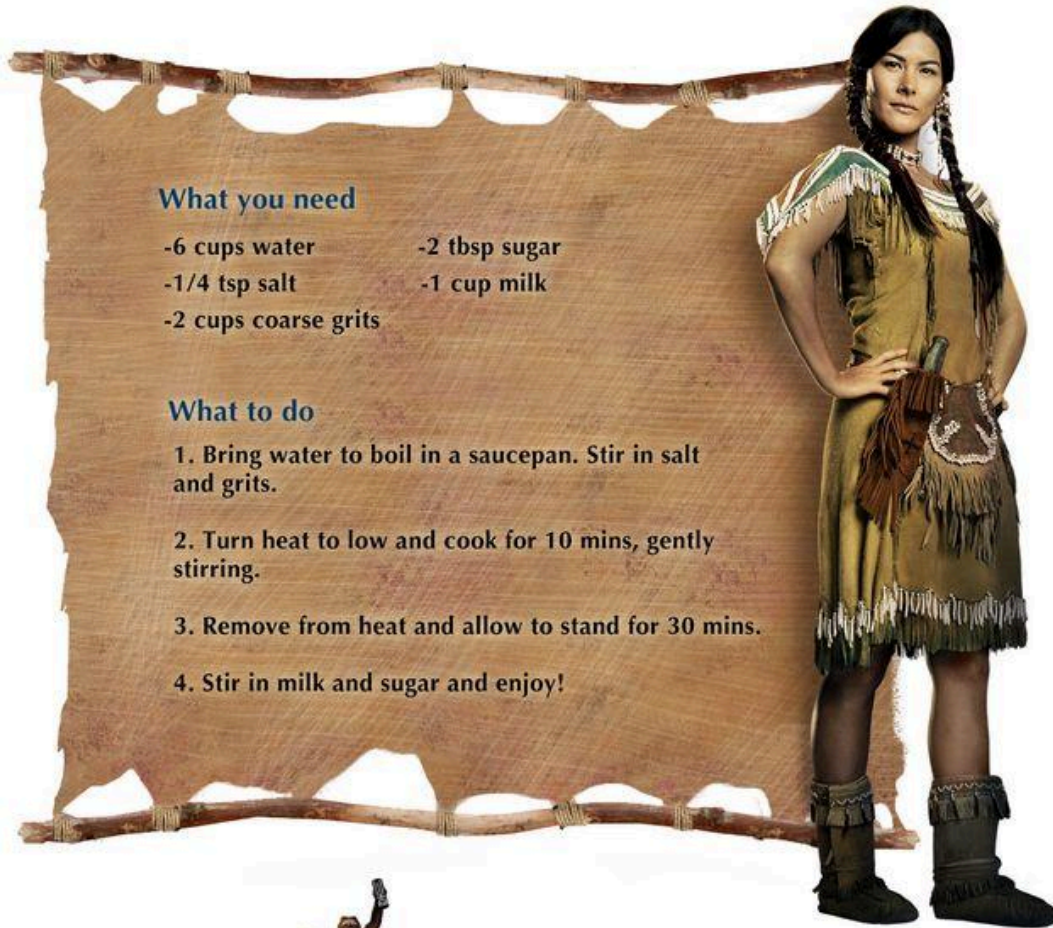

Sacajawea was a Native American guide and translator during the famous 1804 expedition of Lewis & Clark. She might have enjoyed a dessert like this along the way! Corn pudding is something she'd prepare for her love interest in NIGHT AT THE MUSEUM: SECRET OF THE TOMB, Teddy Roosevelt. You too can enjoy this sweet native dessert!

What you need

- 6 cups water
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 2 cups coarse grits
- 2 tbsp sugar
- 1 cup milk

What to do

1. Bring water to boil in a saucepan. Stir in salt and grits.
2. Turn heat to low and cook for 10 mins, gently stirring.
3. Remove from heat and allow to stand for 30 mins.
4. Stir in milk and sugar and enjoy!

NIGHT AT THE MUSEUM SECRET OF THE TOMB

#Night3MovieNight

In NIGHT AT THE MUSEUM: SECRET OF THE TOMB, constellations such as Scorpious and Leo come to life as part of the magical museum show. Make your own magical constellations to light up the room for movie night!

HERE'S WHAT YOU NEED:

Black construction paper

Large safety pin

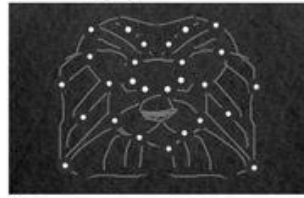

Pencil

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Draw a picture of what you want your constellation to look like onto the black construction paper.

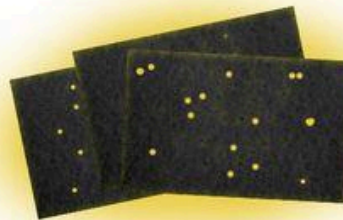

2. Using the safety pin, carefully poke holes along the lines in the drawing. Leave large gaps between each hole.

3. At night, turn your constellation over and hold in front of a lamp so it can glow for movie night!

4. Make a few different drawings and get your family to make some too!
